

Searching a Communal Heart: Earth Literacy, Ecology and Spirituality

Speaker: Professor Ursula King

Sunday 12 November 1.45 – 4 pm

St James's Church, 197 Piccadilly, W1J 9LL

The contemporary understanding of spirituality is closely related to a new consciousness of the Earth and what Thomas Berry calls 'Earth literacy'. The Universe story, Earth story and human story are intimately interconnected. The whole planet and all life are understood as a vast eco-system linked to philosophical and spiritual dimensions. We will explore how this challenges us to love and act differently in a global world that can reveal to us a common mind and heart, and a new sense of divine presence that pervades the whole universe.

Professor Ursula King is Professor Emerita of Theology and Religious Studies at the University of Bristol. She has published widely on gender issues in world religions, interfaith dialogue, spirituality, and on the resonance today of the work of Teilhard de Chardin.

Event Chair: Revd. Lucy Winkett, Rector of St James's Church.

Booking: Please email Petra Griffiths, Living Spirituality Connections Coordinator at petragriffiths@livingspirit.org.uk. Donations to event expenses will be welcome on the day. Light refreshments will be served at 3.30pm.
